

St. Paul the Apostle Religious Education Online Policies

Online classes start September 2011.

An email will be sent to you with your password and logon information in the coming weeks.

- Practicing Catholic (i.e. attends Mass on Sundays and Holy Days, lives a life of prayer and service)
- Students preparing for 1st Communion will sign the attendance sheet at Mass each weekend
- Parents work with student during lessons
- Completion of a minimum of one chapter per week
 - This is the minimum, a few chapters will need to be doubled up to complete the class by May
- Individual performance reports will be emailed weekly to Lisa at (lguarnere@qwestoffice.net)
- Any lessons showing a grade below 65% will be re-taught so that missed concepts can be reviewed
- Students who do not maintain an overall passing score (75% or higher) in the class will start attending classes with their peers at St. Paul the Apostle Church.
- Chapters 1 – 15 will be completed by December 31, 2011.
- Remaining chapters will be completed by May 1, 2012.
- Lessons may be completed ahead of schedule.
- Students who do not keep up with their lessons online, or fail to complete them by the stated deadlines will need to attend classes on site at St. Paul the Apostle Church to receive credit for a completed year of formation.
- Parents & students will meet with Lisa twice a year, at the end of each semester.
- Students are required to complete and pass a mid-year, and final assessment.
- Students will attend a minimum of 4 family activities to interact with peers throughout the year (ex. Eve of all Saints, Parish scavenger hunt, Advent Fair, Lent Fair etc.)
